

South Bay Salt Pond Restoration Project
Stakeholder Forum Meeting

Eagle Room, NASA Ames Research Center, Mountain View
Wednesday, December 15, 2004
1:00 – 4:00 p.m.
Anniversary Celebration 4:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Meeting Objectives/Outcomes:

1. Dialogue on preliminary program alternatives and framework for analysis;
2. Update on South Bay Salt Pond Restoration Project Science Program;
3. Update on progress toward integrated South Bay Salt Pond Restoration Project and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers' South Bay Shoreline Study; and
4. Celebrate one-year anniversary of Stakeholder Forum.

Time (approx.)	Agenda Item	Lead Presenter
1:00 - 1:10	Welcome, review meeting objectives, agenda review	Steve Ritchie, Executive Project Manager
1:10 - 1:25	Review key outcomes/feedback from three public workshops and Local Government Forum	Clyde Morris, US Fish and Wildlife Service, Project Management Team
1:25 - 2:15	Dialogue on Preliminary Alternatives development and analysis	Project Team
2:15 - 3:00	South Bay Salt Pond Restoration Project Science Program	Dr. Lynne Trulio, Project Lead Scientist
3:00 - 3:50	Integration of South Bay Salt Pond Restoration Project and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers' South Bay Shoreline Study	Steve Ritchie
3:50 - 4:00	Next steps, public comment, adjourn	Project Team

Directly following the meeting, Forum members and members of the public are invited to an informal first anniversary celebration.

Please visit the project website: <http://www.southbayrestoration.org/>

DIRECTIONS

MOFFETT PUBLIC AFFAIRS BUILDING – EAGLE ROOM NASA AMES RESEARCH CENTER, MOFFETT FIELD, MOUNTAIN VIEW

From San Jose

- Take Highway 101 North
- Drive approximately 9 miles (from San Jose Airport)
- Exit on Moffett Field (second Moffett Field exit, not “Southgate” Ellis Street); Turn right (east).
- Stay in right lane and turn right just before security gate.
- At the stop sign, there will be a large white "tent" building—the Ames Exploration Center. Turn right and circle behind the Center to the parking area.
- Walk around to the front of the Center and cross the street to the Gift Shop/Public Affairs Building. Enter in the right side at the Public Affairs Entrance.

From San Francisco

- Take Highway 101 South
- Drive approximately 30 miles (from San Francisco Airport)
- Exit on Moffett Field (not Moffett Boulevard) – go under bridge and then over the freeway
- Stay in right lane and turn right just before security gate.
- At the stop sign, there will be a large white "tent" building—the Ames Exploration Center. Turn right and circle behind the Center to the parking area.
- Walk around to the front of the Center and cross the street to the Gift Shop/Public Affairs Building. Enter in the right side at the Public Affairs Entrance.

From East Bay

- Take Highway 880 to the Dumbarton Bridge; Cross the bridge
- Follow signs to CA-114, which connects to Highway 101 South
- Take Highway 101 South until and exit on Moffett Field (not Moffett Boulevard) – go under bridge and then over the freeway
- Stay in right lane and turn right just before security gate.
- At the stop sign, there will be a large white "tent" building—the Ames Exploration Center. Turn right and circle behind the Center to the parking area.
- Walk around to the front of the Center and cross the street to the Gift Shop/Public Affairs Building. Enter in the right side at the Public Affairs Entrance.

